LOWDEN DELEGATES ARE GIVEN SEATS

Eleven Are Recognized When National Committee Decides in Favor of "Regular" Delegation

WOMEN WANT RECOGNITION
To Recommend Complete Reorganization of Party Machinery—Wood Says Proctor Remains

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Ill., June 4.—Eleven delegates, supposed to be Lowden supporters, were given seats in the republican national convention when the national committee today decided in favor of the "regular" delegates from South Carolina.

The South Carolina hearing dealt largely with charges that attempts were made by outsiders to disrupt the regular organization and send their own choice to Chicago.

Chicago, Ill., June 4.—Women will ask the republican convention to give them recognition in the inner council of the party on a fifty-fifty basis, Miss Mary Hawley Hay, stated today.

Mrs. Hay, chairman of the woman's division of the republican national executive committee, has recommended for the complete reorganization of the party machinery so women will be included, in a report which will be filed, probably tomorrow.

Chicago, Ill., June 4.—"Enemy propaganda without an atom of truth in it," was Major General Leonard Wood's comment today on the report, originating here that he had "fired" Col. William Cooper Proctor as chairman of his campaign committee and had put Frank H. Hitchcock in full charge of his campaign.

"A change in the management of the campaign has not even been considered," continued Wood.

"The whole business is enemy propaganda intended to cause dissent and distress."

"Col. Proctor is chairman of my campaign committee and will continue right through," declared Wood.

He said all he wanted from his opponents is "fair play and no favoring."

He declared that when the spread of the propaganda began, it apparently had helped him and not harmed him.

He declined to fix the responsibility for the propaganda.

ATTENDS A MEETING OF HEALTH OFFICERS

Dr. J. B. Kinsinger Returns From Conference of City Officials Held in Indianapolis

AUSPICES OF STATE BOARD

Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, city health officer and secretary of the board of health, has returned home from Indianapolis where he attended the twenty-sixth annual conference of health officers, held under the auspices of the State Board of Health. There were 400 officers in attendance at the two days conference, and a program divided into five sessions was given.

Prominent physicians, health commissioners of other states and health officers of Indiana delivered addresses, and the conference was intended to serve as a school for the officers. Each session was followed by a discussion and one session was taken up entirely by motion pictures portraying the scientific side of many important phases of their work.

The meetings were held Wednesday and Thursday in the auditorium at the Dennison hotel.

10 CASES CONTAGIOUS DISEASE DURING MAY

Five of Them Smallpox, But Quarantine in Each Home Has Now Been Lifted

INSPECTION STARTS MONDAY

According to the report sent by Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, secretary of the city board of health, today to the secretary of the state board of health, there were only ten cases of contagious diseases reported in Rushville during the month of May.

Of the ten cases, 5 of them were smallpox, 3 measles, 1 chickenpox and 1 scarlet fever. The smallpox patients were quarantined the first of the month, and in all of the homes the quarantine has now been lifted. Frances Marie Jones, a 13-day old baby, had the disease in a serious form, it being recalled that the mother contracted the disease on the day following the child's birth.

The report sent out today also contained the fact that there were an equal number of deaths and births in the city during the month, there being seven of each.

Frank Havens, city health inspector, will begin his first rounds of the city next Monday, and will report the unsanitary conditions existing in alleys and back yards.

BODY TO ARBITRATE DIFFERENCES NAMED

Commission Appointed to Settle Controversy Between Anthracite Miners and Operators.

PROCLAMATION BY WILSON

Washington, June 4.—President Wilson today announced the appointment of a commission to arbitrate wage differences between the anthracite coal miners and operators.

The members are William O. Thompson of Columbus, Ohio; J. Ferry of McAdoo, Pennsylvania; William L. Connell of Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Thompson, president of the Ohio State University, is the representative of the public on this commission; Ferry, a member of the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, represents the miners, and Connell, an independent coal operator, the operators.

The president announced the appointment of the commission in a lengthy proclamation reviewing the history of the wage difficulties.

The president said that the commission's decision, which is to be made in sixty days, if possible, will be made the "terms" of a new wage agreement between the anthracite operators and miners in such a manner as the commission may determine.

The new wage increases granted will be retroactive from April 1, 1920.

FARMERS PREPARE FOR THE CORN SHOW

Tendency to Test Seed Greater Than Ever. Indicating That They Have it in Mind

DELAY MAY NOT BE A CHECK.

First of June is Not Too Late. If Remainder of Season Proves to be Advantageous

Now that farmers have a chance, after the rush of corn planting, to get their breath, so to speak attention is being called to the county corn show which will be held next winter in Rushville.

After the successful show held here this spring in connection with Farmers Day plans were immediately made for a bigger show next winter. The Rush County Farmers Association offered to co-operate with the merchants in giving the show so as to make it one befitting the position which Rush county holds as an agricultural county.

The business men of Rushville have guaranteed $350 to be awarded as prizes and to be used in purchasing a cup as a trophy for the show. The plan calls for a show for each township, the township farmers association awarding the prizes. It is assumed that every township association in the county will appropriate the money and that the event will be the most pretentious in the agricultural history of Rush county.

Emphasis is placed upon the fact that the prizes will be larger than those awarded in the state corn show and that farmers can well afford to compete.

The plans for the show were announced early so that farmers could prepare to enter by making a special effort to produce good corn. That they have the corn show in mind is disclosed by the fact that more seed corn was tested this spring than ever before in the history of the county. This reveals the interest which is being taken in the proposed show.

Although the corn crop was late, it is said that need not of necessity be a hindrance. Farmers worked every available moment in order to get in their crop. Some farmers are reported to have planted as many as 130 acres in a week, in addition to preparing the soil for planting.

That the third of June is a little late for this work to be merely completed is admitted freely, but, as has been said more than once in the last few weeks, the first of June is not a very bad time for corn to be in the ground, provided that the remainder of the season is advantageous. In other words, if there is no serious drought in late July or August, and if the autumnal weather is even reasonably auspicious, this county may very well harvest an excellent yield of corn.

The condition of the fruit, which was regarded fearfully at the time of the last frost, is now believed to be distinctly good. The condition of the wheat, while far from flattering, is a good deal different from the prospect of an utter failure. In all, it is believed that a fair and temperate estimate of the agricultural prospects for the year, in the county will show them to be good, in general sense—so good that the farmer, whatever the local or personal problems which he may have to wrestle with, is still deserving to be called one of the most fortunate of business men.

TARIFF ON BEANS

Washington, June 3.—The Ways and Means committee of the House has reported favorably a bill to increase the tariff on beans from 25 cents to $1.25 a bushel. This committee has also been holding a special hearing on a bill to provide protection against the dumping of foreign airplanes on the United States.

ARMY WORM FOUND IN NEARBY COUNTY

Pests Which Caused Damage Here Last Summer Reappear on a Decatur County Farm.

FIRST FOUND AT PRINCETON

Easily Recognized Because of Greenish-Brown Color—Method of Fighting Them.

The army worm, which caused so much damage in central Indiana last summer and was a source of constant worry to scores of Rush county farmers, have again made their appearance and threaten to become as much of a pest as they were last year.

Their first appearance was at Princeton, in Southern Indiana, but today comes word that they have shown up in Decatur county, which adjoins Rush county. Rush county farmers, who were questioned today, said they were hopeful that the outbreak would not be as serious as last year. The most common method employed by farmers in the fight against the pests is to plow deep furrows around the threatened fields.

The army worms were found on wild grass near a field of corn, on the farm of Frank Wertz, in Decatur county. Some of them had traveled into the corn field and were beginning to eat the corn.

These worms are easily recognized because of their greenish-brown color and a characteristic red stripe along their backs. At this season of the year the eggs are hatching and the larvae may cause a great deal of damage.

However, the worms had not spread a great deal on Mr. Wertz's farm, and he can probably prevent their spread by plowing a deep furrow around the area. Since the army worm is very destructive, it is advisable for farmers having low bottom lands to watch closely for outbreaks.

W. L. Ireland, county agricultural agent, is aiding the farmers in their fight against the pests.

Farmers are plowing deep furrows around their fields to prevent the further spread of the worm.

GRAND JURY FINISHES TODAY

Expected to Report Several Indictments Late This Afternoon.

The grand jury, which began a session yesterday, completed their investigations this afternoon, and was expected to report late today. Following their investigations they made a trip to the county infirmary. Only one witness was examined this afternoon, and this morning only a few were before the investigators. Besides the Glenwood accident and the I. and C. safe robbery, it was indicated from the locality from which the witnesses came that the theft of some corn from the Theodore Reed farm a few weeks ago, was also probably under investigation.

FAREWELL SERVICE FOR C. J. BUNNELL

Union Meeting Will be Held Sunday Night at First Baptist Church For Departing Pastor

TO PREACH FAREWELL SERMON

The Rev. C. J. Bunnell, who resigned as pastor of the First Baptist church Thursday evening, May 13, to accept a call to Burnettsville, Cass county, will preach his farewell sermon at a union meeting of the Rushville churches at the Baptist church Sunday evening. It has been customary here for several years for the churches to join in a farewell service for a departing pastor.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bunnell and daughter will leave Monday for Franklin to attend Franklin college commencement exercises where the Rev. and Mrs. Bunnell's son will graduate, and from there they will go to Burnettsville to take up residence. The Rev. Mr. Bunnell served as pastor of the Burnettsville church for four years previously, having left there fourteen years ago.

The local church has no plans for the future, but will endeavor to find a new pastor. The pulpit will be filled by supply ministers for the present. On Sunday, June 13, Children's Day exercises will be held but there will be no preaching services.

RETURNS FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Rev. J. T. Aiken Says Great Enthusiasm Was Manifested at United Presbyterian Meeting

GOAL OF MOVEMENT IS NEAR

The Rev. J. T. Aiken, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, has returned from Sterling, Kansas, where he attended the general assembly of the church from May 26 to June 2. While away he also attended the meeting of the general committee on missions, which was in session at Kansas City from May 19 to May 23.

The Rushville pastor said that the assembly was one of unusual interest and importance because of the advance work being undertaken through the New World Movement. It was announced that the pledges up to June 1 amounted to $10,700,000, but that the campaign would be continued to reach the goal which was set at $16,715,000, to cover a period of five years.

"A spirit of great enthusiasm and deep gratitude to God was manifested on every hand because of the aggressive work now being entered upon both in the home and foreign field," the Rev. Mr. Aiken said. "After careful and prayerful consideration, the assembly by a vote which was practically unanimous, heartily endorsed the International Church Movement."

ADDITIONAL FUND RAISED FOR WOOD

Senate Expenditures Committee Hears of Additional Sum of More Than $200,000

EASTERN TREASURER TALKS

Horace Stebbins Tells of Collections Not Accounted For in Original $1,180,000 Fund

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 4.—The senate campaign expenditures investigating committee today was told of an additional fund of more than $200,000 raised for the Major General Leonard Wood presidential campaign.

The Wood fund had been placed at approximately $1,180,000, by A. Sprague, national treasurer of the Wood campaign.

Today Horace Stebbins, eastern treasurer of the Wood campaign and also connected with the Leonard Wood league, told of other collections and disbursements about which he indicated Sprague did not know.

From the report the Stebbins figures overlapped those given by Sprague and the committee had difficulty in separating them in examining Stebbins' record.

Senator Pomerene asked if the total of Stebbins' accounted for would not increase the Wood fund by $228,494.40.

"I think so," Stebbins said.

Stebbins told of weekly luncheons of the "ways and means committee" of the Wood campaign to consider the matter of raising money. Elkin Root was on this committee, he said.

The future course of the senate investigation into pre-convention campaign expenditures was to be decided today by the action on Senator Pomerene's resolution proposing to continue the investigation even beyond the November election and to bring within its scope congressional as well as presidential campaigns. Senator Pomerene introduced his resolution yesterday, but consideration was delayed until today.

In the meantime the committee which is making the investigation was winding up its affairs preparatory to concluding hearings today at least until after the national conventions.

It was planned to hear only those witnesses who already had been summoned. These were in addition to Warren Gregory, who was connected with the Hoover campaign in California and a Mr. Greenbaum one of those concerned in the financing of Senator Johnson's California primary contest.

Flat contradiction of previous testimony that he had accepted money to be expended in behalf of Governor Lowden's candidacy in Missouri was made Thursday afternoon by W. L. Cole, Republican state chairman in Missouri, before the senate investigating committee. The witness said "there was not a word said about Lowden when E. L. Morse handed him a check for $500." He added that he had assumed that the money was to be used as a personal contribution from Morse in the fight in the Third Missouri congressional district.

CONGRESS WORKS FAST TO ADJOURN

With Mass of Routine Legislation Remaining, Effort is Made to Complete Program

MARINE BILL IS TAKEN UP

Fate of House Resolution Repealing All War Time With Laws With Two Exceptions is Uncertain

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 4.—The senate today accepted the conference report on the merchant marine bill by a vote of 45 to 14.

The bill outlines for the United States shipping board a general policy for sales of war-built ships to private American interests insofar as it is possible, in the board's opinion, to find American purchasers.

Washington, June 4.—With conference reports on several important measures and a mass of routine legislation remaining to be disposed of, both the senate and house, after long night sessions, were making every effort today to complete their programs by Saturday, when the congress will adjourn. Bills passed tonight or tomorrow, leaders pointed out, could not become laws because of delays incident to enrollment and presentation to the President for signature before the adjournment hour.

In the senate, which remained in session until after 2 a. m. today, to pass the third deficiency bill, carrying appropriations for $58,467,000, or $5,000,000 more than the house bill, the conference report on the merchant marine bill was made the unfinished business to be taken up today. Several appropriation bills were yet to be approved.

A similar program was before the house in addition to which leaders in that branch expected to consider the senate resolution refusing the authority asked by President Wilson for a mandate over Armenia. Passage of the resolution was said to be assured, although Democrats expressed hope that the vote would not be as decisive as that in the senate.

The merchant marine bill was before the house yesterday, but was sent back to conference because it was held that the conferees had exceeded their authority in making several changes. These were eliminated by the conference last night, and the measure was expected to meet no opposition when presented today after the senate has acted.

With several members of the senate judiciary committee said to be inclined to question the advisability of such legislation at this time, the fate of the house resolution repealing all wartime laws except the Lever food control act and the trading with the enemy act, was uncertain today. Leaders believed, though, its passage could be brought about before adjournment Saturday.

The house adopted the resolution almost unanimously yesterday, only three Democrats, Representatives Sinms and Garrett, of Tennessee, and Welling of Utah, dissenting. Democrats predicted President Wilson would approve the measure, Representative Connolly (Dem., Tex.) pointing out that the President was among the first to suggest the nullification of the wartime laws.

Retention of the Lever act was declared necessary to give the government an effective law to curb profiteering in necessities, including food and fuel, while continuation of the trading with the enemy measure it was said, was necessary to continue regulation of trade with Germany.

Trial of State Against T. E. McAllister Not Held Today.

The case of the state against T. E. McAllister, charged with assault and battery, which was set for trial this morning in Squire Stech's court, was continued until Monday morning. The continuance was asked by the state, because Prosecutor Stevens was engaged with the grand jury and was unable to attend to the case. McAllister is charged with assault and battery on Ralph Waggoner, which took place on May 21, it is alleged.

Will Hays Another Hoosier Mentioned For White House

During the lean years when the Republican party was on the outside looking in there came from its ranks a new leader, young in years, yet old in political experience in a state where politics is played the year around. When the convention opens at Chicago he will be a dominant figure.

This new leader is Will H. Hays, Republican national chairman, who has risen to comparative obscurity as a country lawyer to a place high in the politics for the Republican party.

Hays is known in Indiana as the man who can talk over two telephones at the same time. He is sometimes referred to as "The Human Dynamo." He has come to the front through untiring energy and his ability to make those about him do as he desires. He works on the theory of assimilation rather than elimination. He is known in Indiana as a harmonizer. His friends insist the initial in his name stands for Harmony. It was this quality that gave him national prominence.

In 1912 James P. Goodrich was Republican state chairman in Indiana. He asked Hays to come to Indianapolis to head the speaker's bureau of the state central committee. The party that year suffered one of the most serious defeats in its history.

Later Goodrich resigned to become a candidate for Governor. Hays was appointed chairman of the state committee. He headed one wing of a divided party. The progressive wing was still active. Hays was faced with the task of bringing these two factions together. They got together and presented a united front which gained a victory almost as overwhelming as its previous defeat.

Thus Will Hays gained the reputation of being the "greatest little harmonizer in politics" and became known in national politics.

When the war opened Hays was appointed by Gov. Goodrich as chairman of the Indiana state council of defense. Here he made an enviable record, serving until he was made Republican national chairman.

Immediately after he became national chairman he set out to cement the party, with the success of his party in the coming election in view. He laid the foundation for a well-built and well-oiled organization. Since that date he has given every minute of his time and every ounce of his energy to the direction of the destinies of the Republican party.

Hays has some very definite ideas about what politics should be. He believes that what is needed in this country is "not less politics, but more attention to politics."

He has repeatedly declared his belief that the greatest menace to the country is not the attitude of his party's opponents, but the attitude of those who take no interest in political affairs. He insists that parties are not instruments for individuals to use for personal aggrandizement, but that they are the means by which thinking men and women promulgate and then practice principles which surround and influence the place they call their home.

"There is no twilight zone in politics," Hays declared. "Right is right and wrong is wrong, and the same standards of morals, equity and justice must obtain as in any private business or professional matter."

Hays is neither a conservative nor a radical. If he were either, he would not be a harmonizer.

Hays is personally a man of modest tastes. His home is still in Sullivan, Ind., where he grew up in the law. He visits his wife and baby boy there whenever he gets a chance between his flittings to New York, Chicago, Washington and way stations.

The Republican National Chairman was born at Sullivan, Ind., November 5, 1879 and naturally is just on the shady side of 40. He took the degree of B. A. at Wabash College, in his native state in 1900 and was admitted to the bar the same year. Two years later he married Helen Louise Thomas of Crawfordsville, Ind. He, like all Hoosiers, took naturally to politics and was elected Republican precinct committeeman before he was of working age. Naturally, as a lawyer, he was elected City Attorney of Sullivan and held that office from 1910 to 1913. He served successively as chairman of the Republican county committee, member of the republican state advisory committee, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Republican state committee and graduated from chairman into National Chairmanship.

Hays is an elder in the Presbyterian church, a 32d degree mason, a K. P., a frat man from his college days and a member of numerous clubs in Indianapolis, Terre Haute and Chicago.

FARMER THOUGHT BACK WOULD BREAK

Felt like he was being bent backward over a barrel. Liver was lazy and often became dizzy. Whole system was run down. Found relief in Dreco, the great root and herb medicine.

"It is wonderful the relief I got from taking Dreco, for I felt like my back would break when I started on my first bottle," stated Mr. Lloyd Harrison, of Route 5, Marion, Ind. "I ached all over, my liver was sluggish and whole system in a run-down, weakened condition. I think I was on the verge of a breakdown. As soon as I started taking Dreco I felt better. My bowels acted freely and my kidneys were flushed off. I began to feel good and my appetite increased. My entire system now seems to be cleaned out, and my body is free from pain. I feel good all the time and give all the credit to Dreco. It sure is one fine medicine."

Dreco is the pure liquid extract of many roots, herbs, barks and leaves, which act on the vital organs of the human body. After taking Dreco it is noticed that the stomach is soothed and the gassy condition is eliminated; the liver becomes active, relieving headaches, that dull, tired-out feeling; nerves are quieted, which induces sound sleep; the kidneys are strengthened; appetite increased; bowels act with ease and regularity, and the whole system takes on renewed energy, vigor and vitality. Dreco is harmless, pleasant to take and the effects are quickly felt.

Dreco is now sold by all progressive druggists and is being especially introduced here by

STILL IS CAPTURED.
Terre Haute, Ind., June 4.—Another "moonshine still" was captured Thursday by Federal agents and the alleged owner, John Dula, 45 years old, placed in jail, charged with violating the state and federal liquor law. The federal officers found a part of a copper still made from a wash boiler and fifty gallons of raisin mash in the process of fermentation. In the fields near the house the lid, coil and condenser belonging to the still and a part of another still were uncovered.

Trutona Proves Happy Medium in
The Case of Little Fort Wayne
Girl

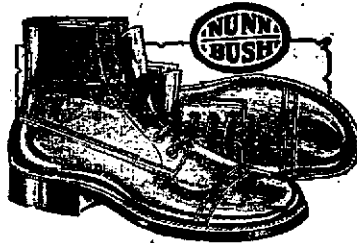

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 3.—Few mothers are any happier today, than Mrs. W. E. Eysich, who lives in Fort Wayne at 122 Eureka Street, and who tells in the following statement of the benefits her little twelve-year old daughter derived through the use of Trutona. She says:

"My little 12-year old daughter, Faustine, had been bothered with kidney trouble for several years, at least, that was what the doctors pronounced it when she was six years old. Her kidneys were so weak that she seemed unable to control their action, especially at night. Her appetite was very poor, too."

"Trutona was recommended to us as being a remarkable remedy for the treatment of kidney trouble, and to my surprise, it worked wonders in the case of my child. Why, my little daughter has been taking Trutona only a week now, but she's able to control the actions of her kidneys, and she certainly has a good appetite."

"The child says Trutona doesn't taste bad, but I suppose its because the medicine is helping her so much that she doesn't mind taking it. I'm certainly grateful for the benefits of my little girl has derived from this wonderful medicine, and I want to make other mothers happy by recommending Trutona."

Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove and Mullin's Drug Store.—(Advt.)

More Work Than Pay

Congress should come to the relief of the postal employees of the country.

The pay is so small and the cost of living is so high that experienced men are resigning at an alarming rate in this branch of the public service. It is crippling the mails and retarding uneasiness over the country.

Congress appoints committees to investigate and the committees consume much time in palavering, and that is about as far as they go. The postal employees continue to exist on small pay, or quit, and the service becomes more crippled through the employment of new and inexperienced help.

We have no fault to find with the postal service itself. We believe it is doing all that it can do under seriously handicapping conditions. We do not believe that any business enterprise could long continue to exist under these same conditions.

The laborer is worthy of his hire the world over, and so long as employees in the mails of trade are receiving high wages to meet the advanced costs of living, the man who handles the mail of this great coun-

Why should the government expect him to discount the value of his services?

To Aid Farm Organizations

Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, has introduced a bill in the Senate to authorize association of producers of agricultural products. Under the provisions of the bill, farmers, ranchmen, dairymen or fruitgrowers would have the privilege of acting together as associations, in handling and marketing their products, to their mutual benefit. Restrictions on the new associations would be similar to the provisions of the Clayton anti-trust act.

An association of producers would not be permitted to pay dividends on stock or membership capital in excess of 8 percent and the secretary of agriculture would be given the power to serve complaint upon any association for practicing methods in restraint of trade. The bill relates only to organizations that handle commodities entering into interstate commerce.

President Rea of the Pennsylvania Railroad says, in reference to rail employees, that "the cost to the public of decreased output is quite likely to exceed the cost of increased wages." That is true not only in the business of railroading but in most other industries. Several plants already have shut down because of the falling off in quantity and quality of output, even after big wage increases had been granted. Until a different spirit animates the ranks of labor the country can look for no relief from the abnormal conditions that prevail.

The bright sunshine of summer days dispels the spirit of gloom and instills a feeling of gladness in the human heart. It makes the bright side of life even brighter and enables us to see the goodness which warms the hearts of our fellow men. It diverts our thoughts into pleasant channels and drives out the shadows which have enshrouded us during the winter months. Welcome the sunshine of summer days, for its war rays produce both the joy and the sustenance of life.

It is reported that the railroads are in the market for 1,500 locomotives, and thousands of freight cars orders for many of which already have been placed. With the gradual removal of the blight left by Government ownership, transportation facilities and service will return to normal once more, and do its part in lowering the cost of living.

It is reported that Great Britain will furnish $50,000,000 to Argentina to meet a maturing American loan. But even the interest payments on our loans to England must be postponed.

Three years ago my system was in a terribly run down condition and I was broken out all over my body. I began to be worried about my condition and I was glad to try anything which would relieve me. Peruna was recommended to me as a fine blood remedy and tonic, and I soon found that it was worthy of praise. A few bottles changed my condition materially and in a short time I was all over my trouble. I owe my restoration to health and strength to Peruna. I am glad to endorse it.

Amusements

Norma Talmadge, Princess

Supreme trust is regarded as being the greatest proof of true love, but it is apt to cause mischief if it is persisted in too far. A prominent lawyer in New York tells a story of a woman who came to him seeking a separation from her husband, to whom she had been wed less than a year. Knowing that she had almost idolized her husband at the time of the marriage the lawyer inquired carefully into the reasons.

"I love him more than ever," said the young wife, sobbing, "but he cares nothing for me. He is interested in nothing I do. Last night I stayed over at a friend's house until nearly midnight, just to see if he didn't care a little bit, and when I came in he never even asked where I had been."

The lawyer was also personally acquainted with the husband, and decided to risk a snub by asking him the trouble.

"I have been worried about her," admitted the husband. "She has been away so much, but if I asked her where she had been it might make her think I did not absolutely trust her."

The lawyer re-united a loving couple by advising the husband to go home and give his wife a scolding for her unexplained absences. Bob Milton a young artist, loved Igna Sonderson, a model, so much that he does not believe he is worthy of her. But his trust was not sufficient to encompass the fact that he saw her entering a man's apartment, with her arms around the man himself, in the early hours of a morning.

The reason for this situation with the events leading up to it and how Igna and Bob both found happiness is the story told by Norma Talmadge in "The Woman Gives", which will be the attraction at the Princess tonight for the last time.

"Bullet Proof" at The Mystic

Harry Carey, star of the latest western photodrama "Bullet Proof," at the Mystic Theatre today, has won a number of titles since appearing on the screen, some of his most recent appellations being Cheyenne Harry and "The Ace of the Saddle." His friends now call him "The Buffalo King."

Carey has just purchased a herd of over seventy buffaloes, probably the largest single herd in the United States, and is having them transported to his ranch in the San Francisco Canyon, California. The shaggy animals were the property of a friend in Montana who has recently disposed of his holdings and was glad to sell the buffaloes to anyone who was willing to take them all.

The screen star, with the assistance of A. C. Stecker, the chief animal man at Universal City, will try to breed the animals on a commercial scale and sell to menageries, parks and exhibitions.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Sadler of Wormleysburg, Pennsylvania, delightfully surprised their relatives in this city. Lewis Sadler and family, Chase Sadler and Miss Ada G. Sadler, yesterday, when they arrived at their homes for a days' visit with them. The trip was made by motor in three days, with no traveling at night. They will start the return trip this afternoon.

The Christian Woman's Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church held their regular June meeting yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church. A large attendance was present for the meeting and a very delightful program was given. Mrs. P. H. Chadwick had charge of the Bible study, which consisted of "Fields White to the Harvest." A very interesting paper on "The Healing of Africa" was given by Mrs. John A. Tinsworth. Miss Marian Kinsinger rendered several beautiful piano solos, and Mrs. Jesse Winkler conducted "The Facts for the Busy Woman."

Storm Is Raised Over $5,000 Hat

New York, June 4—What sort of a description French milliners are going to give them is a question American purveyors of feminine headgear are asking one another. Fifth Avenue creators of women's fashions in hats and some from other large cities of the country, who must go to Paris for their fall "French models," are curious to know just how much of their "Fourteen Points" the French milliners are going to put into effect.

It all happened when the Americans tried to be clumsy and make Mme. Deschanel, wife of the French president, a president of a $5,000 "Yankee" hat. The French answered that the American hat makers had taken unfair advantage of them during the trying days of the war; that the Americans couldn't design a hat Mme. Deschanel would wear, anyhow—or words to that effect; and intimated that if the Americans thought they could, the French were going to let them "go to it."

Whether this means the French are going to "hold out" on their best mode's when the American millinery buyers arrive, the builders of the Deschanel hat, are not sure. But, the first crusader, in the person of Milton Wolf of Josephs—Fifth Avenue—has sailed for Paris to find out.

Wolf bears the distinction of having drawn the specifications for the $5,000 headpiece France's First Lady refused to wear, so it is only fitting that he should have been the one to invade the hornets' nest Paris milliners have threatened to make their city where American milliners are concerned.

Dependable!

Since Calumet came, we've quit switching brands of baking powder—stopped looking for anything better. They don't make it. It has come to stay—because it always stays the same—and the "same" with means the best. Its uniformity of quality—powerful and unfailing strength insure greatest baking success—tender, tempting, fully raised bakings every time—and real baking economy. Moderate in cost. One can convince you. Order now.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

HIGHEST QUALITY

The C. W. B. M. of the Orange Christian church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Ida Davis in Orange yesterday afternoon. A very interesting program was given and during the business session the following officers were elected: Mrs. W. R. Phillips, re-elected president; Mrs. R. C. Friend, re-elected vice president; Mrs. Ida McKee, treasurer; Mrs. J. F. Ryan, secretary and Miss Irene Friend, assistant secretary. The hostess served a dainty collation at the close of the meeting. Mrs. R. C. Friend will be hostess for the members of the society in July.

On next Tuesday, June 8, the Sexton Missionary Society will hold their June meeting with Mrs. John Wright, south of the city. At noon a pitch-in dinner will be served. In the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the election of officers will take place, after which the following program will be rendered: Bible study, Grace Winkler; prayer, Esta Grubbs; "The Healing of Africa," Dora Winkler; "The Old School Doctors of Africa," Katie Wright; "Our Present Medical Force in Africa," Minnie Weiss; "Facts For the Busy Woman," Emily Kiser; "The Little Missionary," Mildred Weiss; Hidden answers, Mrs. Carrol Clifton; Bible questions, Mrs. Vester Casey. The program will be in charge of Miss Edyth Winkler. All members are urged to be present.

State High School Athletic Association Meets Increased Attendance at Track Meet

IS EXPECTED TO GROW BIG

Track Meeting Will Compel as Much Interest in 1921 as Basketball Has, It is Believed

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3.—Members of the Board of Control of the Indiana State High School Athletic Association have a real problem before they hold the eighteenth annual state championship track and field meet in May 1921.

The track meet like the state basketball tournament has become such a big event that it is a real problem to see that all contestants have a fair chance. This problem has been partly solved this year by only permitting winners of first and second places in events in the sectional meets to be sent to the state meets. Before this season winners of third places in events in the sectional meets also went to the state meet.

While the third place men in the sectional meets did not get to go to Lafayette to attend the state games this year, there were as many men here as at Richmond the year before. This was due to the holding of two extra sectional meets which was made necessary this year by the increased interest in track and field athletics among the high schools. Fifty-six high schools sent men to Lafayette. There were 178 athletes entered in the twelve events.

The big problem which confronts the board of control is the running of the 440 yard dash and the 880 yard run. Twenty-one athletes went in their marks at the start of the 440 at Lafayette. That is too many men to run in the event at one time.

Marks of Wabash, a fast runner, ran an outside position and ran at least 15 yards farther than any of the men, who won points in the event, and while finishing about fourth never had a chance to win because there were so many in the race he could not get a good position on the track. He is one of the fastest men in the central west.

The high schools must adopt the plan of running heats in the 440 and 880 yard events beginning next year is the opinion expressed by five college coaches who witnessed the late meet at Lafayette. However the events are so strenuous that a man could not run the distance twice in one day. Therefore the wise plan would be to hold the 440 and 880 yard heats the day before the finals are run. This is done in college conference meets and has been found a real success.

In that way there would be just six or possibly nine men in the finals on the Saturday when the state championship events are run and each man would have a real chance to do his best. Danger of runners getting killed and being spiked would be gone away with, and it would not be too strenuous for the runners.

JOHN CONWAY GETS DIVORCE

Rushville Man is Given Decree in Fayette Circuit Court

John Conway of this city was granted a divorce yesterday from Mae G. Conway in the Fayette circuit court, securing the decree on grounds of desertion and unfaithfulness. Mr. and Mrs. Conway resided in Connersville at the time of the filing of the complaint, and when heard yesterday the defendant did not appear, and Judge Springer granted him the divorce. The matter of the custody of their child was given to the husband, because she did not appear and take interest in the case. Her whereabouts are said to be unknown.

WESTERN CONFERENCE TRACK MEET IS HELD

College Athletes Compete For Field Honors Today at Ann Arbor—Indiana Represented

INTEREST IS ON RELAY RACE.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 4.—Star athletes of the West competed in the annual western conference track and field meet here today. The meet which is held under the auspices of the Big Ten, will end tomorrow.

Big Ten schools which have entered for the meet are Illinois, Chicago, Northwestern, Michigan, Minnesota, Indiana, Wisconsin, Purdue, Ohio and Iowa. Non-conference colleges which will be represented include Wabash, Missouri, Michigan Aggies, Notre Dame, Missouri Aggies, Kansas, California, Butler and the Kansas Aggies.

Interest centers chiefly in the relay event, where California and Illinois will meet for the second time this year. California barely beat out the Illinois team at a dual track meet staged in California several weeks ago. Illinois finished second at the Penn relays.

Among stars who are entered for the meet are Johnson of Michigan, who starred for the Wolverines at last year's meet and McCoshum and Speer won the 220 low hurdles for Chicago last year. Merchant of California is expected to try for a world record in the pole vault. He recently set a Pacific Coast record of 23 feet, 11 inches.

Today's events were confined principally to preliminaries.

INDIANA MEN RETURN FROM SOUTH AMERICA

Bluffton Explorers And Scientists Lose Flesh While Hunting For Reptiles in Venezuela

UNHEALTHY PLACE TO LIVE

Bluffton, Ind., June 4.—Minus more than twenty pounds of weight each two Bluffton men were home today from a scientific research trip through the wilds of Venezuela.

They are E. B. Williamson, banker-scientist, and Will Ditzler, timberman. Jess Will Williamson, of this city and Prof. H. B. Baker, of the University of Michigan were also in the party which brought back specimens of 12,441 dragon flies and many reptiles of the tropical country. Prof. Baker collected the reptiles and E. B. Williamson obtained the dragon flies.

The cost of living in Venezuela, such as it is, is much lower than in the United States, the men said. Six miles in the interior of San Echeban, the daily expenses of each was $1.40.

"But I would not live in Venezuela if you gave the whole country to me," Ditzler said. "Why the largest city in that country, they don't have stoves to cook victuals. The food in most places is filthy."

E. B. Williamson told of the party eating meat at one town, which had been dragged across a platform unprotected, fly-covered and then dragged across the ground to the hotel where they were staying.

Prof. Baker and E. B. Williamson were stricken with malaria and Ditzler was infected with fly larvae.

TAIL LIGHTS PLAY FIRST GAME SUNDAY

Rushville Base Ball Team Will Make Initial Appearance at West Third Street Ground

ANDERSONVILLE OPPONENTS

Boosters tickets for the first baseball game of the season to be played in Rushville by the Tail Lights are selling rapidly, according to an announcement made today by the local manager. The game Sunday will be played with the fast Andersonville team, and although the local team defeated them once this season, it is said that the Franklin county team will come loaded for the game Sunday.

Anyone who desires a try-out with the Tail Lights should report for practice at the West Third Street diamonds on Sunday morning, when all members are urged to be there for the usual practice.

The grounds in West Third street have been put into fine shape for the opening game, and the attendance Sunday will determine whether or not future games will be played here. Mayor Irvin has consented to pitch the first ball for the Tail Lights, and the local team will be represented with a strong line-up.

FULL OF VIGOR, AND VIM NOW SINCE TAKING VOLA TONIC—RECOMMENDS IT

"Vola-Tonic helped me so much that I am glad to make this statement and I hope that everybody who is weak and run down like I was will give this medicine a trial," said Chas. Weirich, 2521 Halstead avenue, Cincinnati, O.

"Last winter I had an attack of influenza and when I got up from it I was weak and run down all over. I tried everything but I couldn't get back my strength.

"My appetite was so poor that I didn't eat much of anything at all and what I did eat I just had to force down. Of course, my food didn't do me any good and that is one reason why I couldn't get any stronger.

"I was mighty nervous too, and couldn't sleep right at night at all and I got up mornings feeling even more tired out than I did when I went to bed the night before.

"In short, my system all over was out of fix and I just dragged around at my work and didn't take any interest in anything.

"Finally, I decided to take Vola-Tonic and now I am mighty glad I did. My strength has come back fine and I am full of energy and vigor now.

"It wasn't long after I started taking Vola-Tonic until my appetite came back. I'm eating real meals again now. Vola-Tonic put my nerves in good condition also and I sleep like a child at night.

"I hope every weakened, run down person will try Vola-Tonic."

Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength" is sold in Rushville by Frank E. Wolkott.—(Advt.)

With a code of years association among some of the most successful Millers of the Country, we offer you the Service of accrued acquaintance and experience. It will be our fixed policy to put more into this county than we take out.

We Propose:

To pay top prices for your wheat.

To employ local men. Every dollar paid in salaries goes to men who spend their money among you.
To improve the plant and equipment from time to time that this plant shall be the pride of your county.

We Ask You:

To give us first chance on all your wheat in order that most shall be realized for this county in having its products exported in finished form.
To buy our brands whenever possible thus promoting our mutual interests.
To visit us often with your encouragement, advice, and your moral support.

The present would seem a very opportune time to dispose of any surplus wheat. Several causes combine to make this so. We are paying fancy prices for it.

Committee in Charge Will See to it
That Visitors Are Given a Splen-

San Francisco, June 4.—The gouge, that implement of torture that is used to rake money away from tourists and strangers, is being put away in San Francisco while the city prepares to entertain the Democratic national convention in June.

This city, which has as its motto "San Francisco Knows How," is going to try to make a record as an entertainer that will not leave a bad taste in the mouth of any delegate or visitor.

"We desire to entertain them—

a young man who practiced medicine in a rural district became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce who afterward moved to Buffalo, N. Y. He made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and he put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state in the Union. For fifty years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has sold more largely throughout the United States than any other medicine of like character. It's the testimony of thousands of women that it has benefited or entirely eradicated such distressing ailments as women are prone to. It is now sold by druggists in tablet form as well as liquid.

WEST UNION, ILL.—"Dr. Pierce has my heart's best thanks for what his 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me. I shall always recommend this medicine. Since using it I am much improved in health. I do not have that 'draggy' feeling I had before."—MISS MAUDE BLIZZARD, Route 3.

not to gouge them. We wish to leave such a good taste in their mouths that they will commend us, not criticize us," said Charles Fay, who, as postmaster, has taken the leading part in preparing for the thousands of visitors who will be here convention week.

First, the accommodations committee has brought the hotel men together and has obtained their consent to turn the city's entire hotel facilities over to the committee. The committee and the hotel men then agreed upon what is considered fair compensation for the rooms of various grades. Fay said hotel bills for this convention will be lower than for any other convention in history.

A complete statement of rates from the highest to the lowest is in Fay's hands.

"Generally speaking, they are about half as high as the rates that prevailed at recent national conventions at Chicago and St. Louis," Fay said, "despite the fact that prices generally have jumped sky high since those conventions."

The highest rate charged will be $12 per day for a double room and a bath. The rates range down from that to $7 a day. Accommodations of San Francisco and Oakland were handed over in bulk by the Hotel Men's Association. All assignments for delegates were made via the accommodations committee. The good result, according to Fay, was possible because the hotel men "sat in" on the deliberations and agreed that for the sake of San Francisco's fair name nothing should be done that would save the gouge.

Fay is now busy arranging a fair price for meals, but he admits this problem is harder to solve. He believes the city's restaurant men will respond as the hotel men have done.

"We will not tolerate any effort to gouge a convention visitor," Fay said. "I don't care to discuss that matter now, but a way will be found to bring effective pressure against any man who tries to get unfair profits during convention week."

OFFER PRIZE TRIPS OF EDUCATIONAL VALUE

Champion Potato Grower Gets Trip to The International Live Stock
Exposition at Chicago in 1920

PRIZES TO AMOUNT TO $450

Z. M. Smith, State Club Leader of Indiana, and Mrs. G. L. Noble of Armour's Farm Bureau, Chicago, have recently prepared an agreement whereby the Champion Potato Grower of each of the three districts outlined by the Indiana Agricultural Extension Service of Purdue University are offered prize trips of an educational character; the sum of $300 will be used to pay the expenses of ten or more trips to the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago in 1920 distributed at the discretion of the State Club corn club winners. The total prize money awarded amounts to $450.

The winners will be selected by the authorities of the Indiana Agricultural Extension Service of Purdue University in charge of Junior Club work, at least three members of the College staff passing upon the records of the various club members. The winners of the prizes will be announced at least three weeks before the International takes place, and the prize money for the trip will be distributed by Mr. Smith about two weeks before the Show. In order to receive this money it will be necessary for the winner to take the trip to Chicago and prepare a brief story of his or her experiences at the Stock Show.

Armour's Farm Bureau is offering these prizes in the belief that the most potent forces in producing more and better live stock is that of the boys' and girls' clubs, whose influence is growing rapidly in every state.

What Kills A Storage Battery

IF YOU let a windmill tank become nearly empty repeatedly the staves will soon fall to pieces. Exhausting a storage battery below the danger point repeatedly has a similar effect on the battery plates. A Matthews plant does not permit this. Long before they are exhausted to the danger point, the "Automatic Care-taker" automatically starts the generator recharging and stops it automatically when the batteries are full.

protect an overloaded battery against heating by automatically taking all the load on the generator. But if the generator can't carry it all, the batteries automatically "cut in" again and both bear the burden. Any plant that does less than this is NOT an Automatic and is out of date the day it is installed.

REDUCED ACREAGES ON 2 VEGETABLES

Beans And Potatoes Will be Short Crops, According to Report Received by Government

REAL CAUSES ARE GIVEN.

Growers Claim Unsatisfactory Market For Beans And The High Price of Seed Potatoes

Washington, June 1.—Reductions of 5 per cent in the acreage planted to potatoes last year and of 20 per cent in areas devoted to beans are indicated for this season in reports just received by the Bureau of Crop Estimates, United States Department of Agriculture. The reports came through the field agents of the bureau who on May 1 inquired of growers in important producing States concerning their intended planting. High prices for potato seed on the farm labor shortage are the principal reasons given for the reduction in potato plantings. The unsatisfactory market for beans is given as the reason for the smaller acreage planned for that crop. The reports show that for the States covered the potato acreage will be 95 percent as large as last year, while the bean acreage will be 71 percent of last year.

New York reports the intention to plant 97 percent of last year's acreage in potatoes. Michigan 90, Wisconsin 95, Minnesota 89, Colorado 94, Idaho 95, and California 110. Aroostook County, Maine, which produces 60 percent of the potato crop of New England, intended to plant as much or more, but deep snows, strikes, and embargoes have delayed receipt of fertilizer, and plantings will depend upon the amount received in time.

New York reports an intended acreage in beans 90 percent as large as last year, Michigan 75, Wisconsin 70, Colorado 65, New Mexico 80, Idaho 100, California will plant 80 per cent of all varieties, linas being 90 percent and other varieties 45 percent of last year, although a poor barley crop in Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys may increase plantings of the latter.

Final plantings of beans and potatoes will be estimated by the Bureau of Crop Estimates on July 1. The potato crop last year was 358,000,000 bushels—54,000,000 bushels less than in 1918, and 83,000,000 less than in 1917, but 70,000,000 more than in 1916. It was about 3 percent smaller than the average crop of the preceding ten years, and 6 percent smaller than the average crop of the preceding ten years, and the plantings last year were large enough to have produced with an average yield a crop of 390,000,000 bushels.

The bean crop of the United States last year was about 12,000,000 bushels. While only about three-fifths as large as the crops grown on the exceptional favorable 1917 season, the exceptionally large acreages of 1918 and 1917, the 1919 crop was almost equal to the crops of 1914 to 1916, which averaged between 12 and 13 million bushels. The planting as now indicated—about 800,000 acres—with a yield equal to the average of the last five years would produce a crop of 8,250,000 bushels.

Mrs. ALICE GRESHAM DODD, mother of the first American soldier killed in France, who gives entire credit for recovery of her health to the well-known medicine Tanlac.

The following remarkable endorsement of Tanlac was given recently by Mrs. Alice Gresham Dodd, at the Gresham Memorial Home, Gavin Park, Evansville, Ind., which home was presented to her by the patriotic people of Indiana, as evidence of their appreciation of the services rendered to this country by her son, Corporal James B. Gresham, the first American soldier killed in France. Expressions of sympathy were received by Mrs. Dodd from all parts of the United States and the newspapers of the country carried the story of the first "war mother." The shock of her son's death resulted in the serious breakdown of Mrs. Dodd's health, but everyone will learn with interest and pleasure that she is now in splendid health again. When seen at her home recently she made the following statement, giving the entire credit for her recovery to the well-known medicine, Tanlac.

"After my dear boy's death, I had a general breakdown in health," said Mrs. Dodd. "At first it was just indigestion. My food used to upset me and I had to diet myself very carefully, which wasn't much hardship as I lost all desire to eat. Then I had an attack of rheumatism, with severe pains in my shoulders, back and arms. Sometimes I used to suffer a great deal, and my joints would get all swollen up and stiff. I was able to do very little about the house, and at times couldn't even cook a meal. I got very nervous and restless, and at night would lay awake for hours, and lost many a night's sleep as a consequence."

"A friend of mine had received a great deal of help from Tanlac, and it was she who advised me to try it. I am so glad I did for it proved the best medicine I have ever taken. It soon gave me a good appetite and seemed to settle my stomach so that I was no longer troubled with indigestion. I don't know what it is to have rheumatic pains, now, the swelling and stiffness has all gone out of my joints and I am able to do the work of the house with the greatest ease. My nerves are now steady and strong. I sleep fine at night, and I feel better in health than ever before in my life. I shall always be grateful for what Tanlac has done for me, and shall recommend it every chance I get."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manila by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, and in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty.—(Adv.)

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

Go hand in hand. Good eyesight is an important factor in health. Eyestrain usually means nerve strain, and nerve strain lowers resistance to disease. Have your eyes examined regularly, whether you feel the need of glasses or not. In this way you can check promptly the threads of eyestrain.

WHEN somebody tells you of a battery that has come through a long life and had some hard knocks along the way, don't put him down as a windjammer. BELL BOYS FORM A TRUST.

Plan to Sell Hard Stuff at $40 Pint
Arouses Prohibition Officers—
Entertainment Plans Made

Chicago, June 4—The cider, grape juice, ginger ale and near beer beverages will flow during the G. O. P. national convention here beginning June 8, but the lid is on hard liquor.

Government prohibition agents, aided by dry sleuths, were prepared today to censor closely what is drunk at the coming convention.

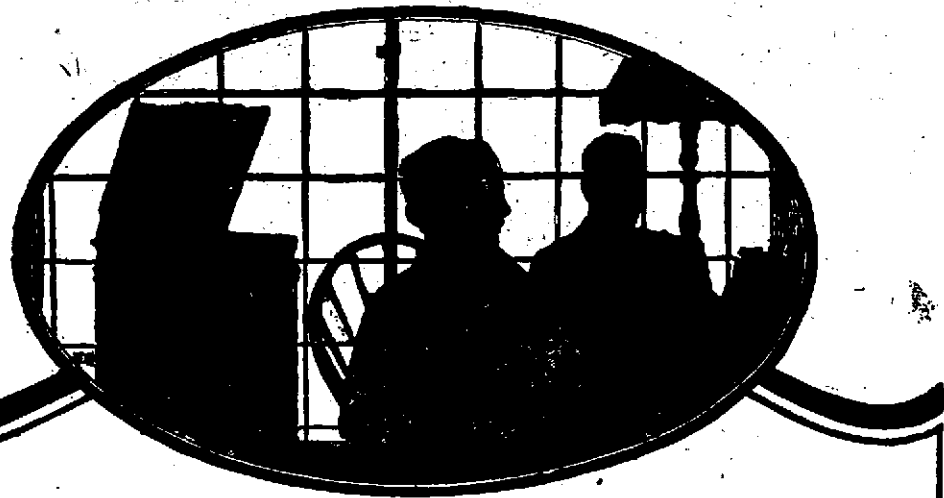

Reports that bell boys have formed a trust and agreed not to sell whiskey for less than $40 a pint have come to prohibition agents and the prospect of several of them getting jobs as bell hops was considered entirely probable to prevent any smuggling of liquor into guests' rooms.

Soft drink "bars" are expected to do a big business. What space hasn't been grabbed by politicians for a headquarters has been taken over for convention week by soft drink sellers and confectioners.

There is a plentiful supply of whiskey and beer in Chicago, but this is mostly sealed up by the government and can only be sold on physicians' prescriptions. But local Republicans say they have some to spare for a few drinks and it is hoped that Mayor William Hale Thompson, national committeeman from Illinois, may loosen the lid a little to allow delegates to have a good time.

Cabarets are to run full tilt during convention week. The old tenderloin district, just south of the Coliseum, where the convention will be staged, is taking on new life and the notorious 22d Street has opened several live cabarets, with "drug stores next door."

Entire suites have been taken over by presidential candidates to entertain delegates and their wives. Convention week will be featured by scores of teas, dinners and dances. Regular shipping tours will be conducted for the benefit of the women visitors.

Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, has taken over the Florentine room at the Congress. Maj.—Gen. Leonard Wood has the Gold room and Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois has the Elizabethan room.

Major Thompson intends to capitalize the situation in every way. He has secured the Pompeian room, at the entrance to the Congress Hotel, and all visitors must pass his headquarters, which will be emphasized by signs and banners with Thompson's name on them.

Furthermore the mayor will fit his headquarters for the convenience of the delegates. Fleets of automobiles will be placed at their disposal and the hometown newspapers will be on file. Messengers and secretaries will be on hand to do personal service for delegates.
